How To Respond When You Feel Mistreated

Synopsis

"Repay no one evil for evil" (Romans 12:17 NKJV). Easier said than done, right? But that's exactly what John Bevere recommends in How to Respond When You Feel Mistreated. We are all subject to some authority, and those in leadership often misuse their power and hurt others. But we as Christians are called to honor and submit to authority, even if it means accepting unfair treatment. "'Vengeance is mine, I will repay,' says the Lord" (Romans 12:19 NKJV). God's justice often takes longer than we want to wait, but it does come. And our obedience in accepting suffering increases His work in the lives of others. Ultimately, our model for responding to unfair treatment is Jesus. And by enduring suffering as He did, we are made more like Him.

I bought this book to help me to get rid of burdens I knew I was not meant to carry. I was not sure how to really clarify what or how I could do so though. This book helped me recognize my flaws and accept truths that every Christian should hold.

I am a fan of John Bevere's and found this book very enlightening. The power of the human spirit to allow God's love to encompass us when dealing with difficult people is just as Jesus would have handled it. Loved it!

Awesome book! I'm not done yet, but glad I bought it! It's easy to read and small enough to carry around with you anywhere. I love small books like this that get to the point and actually help!

Good reading. Helpful.

This book is so powerful! Everyone should read it! Makes you really think before reacting. Short, simple and to the point. One of the best b

This is an awesome book. I have ordered it three more times and sent them to friends. Awesome It is simple to read so doesn't take a lot of "concentration" or a long time to read. Very encouraging when you are discouraged. Great book!

Go to them and humble yourselves to them and as I have said in previous reviews on his books he relates pretty much the same things that happened with him and his boys was to go to the people humbling and repent for causing them any undo offense and to please forgive you. God knows you were wounded but he tells how it will turn the tide when you do it. John Bevere has shown it works and he only obeys God in any of these instances no man. For man will tell you other things. I love his books and they are keepers for your faith libraries and do loan them out the people who read them will be blessed and you too for helping them to get to know John Bevere

Thanks.
