Very nice book with a lot of travel information that covers getting ready to go to Costa Rica and then a great guide for things to do and see when you get there. Being unfamiliar with a country, and going there without a plan never works well for me. I like the fact that it alerted me to a couple of things I needed to do prior to traveling to the country. Book is a top quality publication.

Found this book at a place we were renting in Costa Rica. I think it is a great resource for those visiting for the first time or a person returning!

Not as complete as Fodor's, but good information and great photos.

This was very helpful and we kept it with us everywhere we went while in Costa Rica. We did purchase a very detailed map to get around more easily.

Covers many different sites and attractions well.

Served us well

Excellent... Great source for planning my trip!
