Customer Reviews

Know what you are buying. I purchased this as a potential gift thinking it was a book listing details of some of Notre Dame's specific winning teams. It is instead a magazine-sized 48-page summary of materials that can be found easily on the Web. And the last seven pages are a glossary of general terms and a list of generic web links. It is NOT comprehensive and it is NOT a description of the Notre Dame's winning teams. It reads like a collection of brief magazine articles. It is well-written, the photographs are high quality, and the the printing is high quality. But this item is not at all what I expected for the price.
