Customer Reviews

Liza Charlesworth has written dozens of books for students and teachers.

I have used these posters for many years. I teach 3rd grade. These posters are filled out the first week of school for homework and then we use them to introduce each student of the week. After the student is introduced using the poster. we each write a friendly letter. The poster stays up all week and at Open House in May we hang them all up around the room.

Item as described.

Perfect for my 5th graders to fill out to be recognized weekly.

A great beginning of school activity.

Great student of the month poster. I use it for my 3rd graders. I just wish it had lines in the autobiography portion.

Students love it

Wish they were rolled, rather than folded.

Kids love it, even in 6th grade!
