Wings Of The Wind (Out From Egypt Book #3)

Synopsis

Cossette Consistently Brings the Old Testament to Life in an Engrossing, Fresh New Way Alanah, a Canaanite, is no stranger to fighting and survival. When her family is killed in battle with the Hebrews, she disguises herself and sneaks onto the battlefield to avenge her family. The one thing she never counted on was surviving. Tobiah, a Hebrew warrior, is shocked to find an unconscious, wounded woman among the Canaanite casualties. Compelled to bring her to a Hebrew healer back at their camp, he is soon confronted with a truth he can't ignore: the only way to protect this enemy is to marry her. Unused to being weak and vulnerable, Alanah submits to the marriage--for now. As she comes to know and respect Tobiah and his people, however, she begins to second-guess her plans of escape. But when her past has painfully unanticipated consequences, the tentative peace she's found with Tobiah, the Hebrews, and Yahweh is shaken to the core. Can Alanah's fierce heart and strength withstand the ensuing threats to her life and all she's come to love?

Customer Reviews

What an interesting journey with Connilynnes imagination. This is a very interesting look at biblical history and certainly gives an appreciation of God's regard for women. Heathen customs sure didn't value them. Ugh! I am so thankful for God's love and grace.

What a fantastic conclusion to this trilogy. The portrayal of Alanah's life makes me so thankful to be born in today's world in the USA. The issues that faced her were so common for so many of that day. Women were oftentimes simply the property of men of that day and were not able to make choices for themselves. They found themselves wed to men they didn't know and had to make the best of their lives. Yet, in this book we find all this, but we also see the healing and life-giving power that God gives when we seek Him and His will. I have become a Cossette fan and will read future books by this outstanding author.

I facilitate a book group that reads Biblical fiction. After reading and discussing COUNTED WITH THE STARS (#1 Out of Egypt), the group requested that we complete the series. WOTW meets our requirement that the novel is based on Scripture. Our discussions are thoughtful, interesting, and spiritual. Connilyn Cossette is on our list of "must read" authors. I received a complimentary copy of WINGS OF THE WIND in anticipation of my review.

Absolutely stunning! I do not usually prefer to read biblical fiction books but the 'Out of Egypt' series has been fantastic. I think this last one was my favorite of all, even though I also loved the first two. This book is worth 10 stars!!

Beautifully written. Without giving anything away, it amazed me how the storyline was put together based on the Biblical passages used. Once I reached halfway, I just had to finish it. Suspenseful. Surprising. Just loved it. I feel it was the best of the series. Can't wait to read more of Connilyn's books.

This series ends here. And in this final book the quest for more yields an awareness that more lays in the intimacy of ones walk with Jesus. The exact truth that both Alanya and Tobias experience within these pages. Their personal encounter with Yahweh foreshadows the encounter ready for each of us who believe.

My first reading of the works of Connilyn Cossette was the Out of Egypt series. I will read her works again. Her level of imagination blended with her understanding of scripture and obviously well researched history of the communities she writes about, make her work amazing. Overtly romantic, the books bring a strong touch of reality to the everyday life of biblical societies. She sets the reader thinking by filling in the gaps that made for a day in the life of a sojourner. The twists and turns keep the reader peeking over the page. A good read indeed.

All 3 of the books are connected and wonderful to read. I love what the author enhances and incorporates with the Bible books and history, just amazingly talented and creative. Do take the time to read this inspirational series...
