Customer Reviews

Basic book is well written. Problem is trying to find a specific source reference within the text. What is required is a concordance that allows you to look up a question (say, murder) and retrieve a list of appropriate references.

This manual covers literally everything you might need to know about being a Muslim. From every prayer to Haji, it's all covered here and in depth. Many of the Hadiths are also included, as well as words from scholars on issues of debate.

Interesting but I question some of the statements made in the book excellent insight on what is really seen as law in Islam. Everyone should study this before believing the scare tactics used to make people hate Muslims.

A pretty good source to research Sharia Law. It is always good to get the information, first hand.

Its a little hard to read, I just wanted to know more about such religion.

Every American should read this.

With all of the discussion of Sharia Law, this is a helpful introduction to its contents.
