Making Classic Wreaths: Designing & Creating For All Occasions

Synopsis

These wonderful wreaths go far beyond Christmas decorations. Crafted from pinecones, seashells, autumn leaves, berries, pumpkins, and even styrofoam, they add a beautiful touch to any room all year long. They're easy to make, too, especially with instructions that carefully outline the basic supplies and show how to make an attractive bow, wire items to the wreath, work with dried materials, enhance pre-made wreaths, and much more. Fashion a lovely seasonal wreath from spring pussy willows and forsythia. Just for fun, use recycled toys on a wreath or "wreath around the clock." • Wish someone a happy birthday with a wreath adorned with party horns, sweets and bright ribbon. One "seedy" wreath is for the birds. They're all creative, unique, and fun to make.

Customer Reviews

I have a lot of wreath books, but this is the best one I have ever bought. Many different types of wreaths and different uses for them. Author also included a supply list of different glues and their uses, paints types, wires, flower types, everything you would use making wreaths with helpful suggestions. The best one was the stemming machine, which I had never heard of. It makes and attaches the sharp, pointed, metal tips you find at the bottom of stems to insert the florals into the wreath. I checked around and they are over $100 on and some other sites, but found them on eBay under a $100. I highly recommend this book if you like making wreaths.

I just got this book . The instructions are easy to follow and almost everytype of wreath is in this book. iam a semi-pro designer and iam very pleased with this book. I suggest you buy this book rather you are a beginner or a pro.

This book is alright. Not too many designs inside. Multiple looks of the same idea. A couple basic tips on wreath making. Sometimes I find it skips a step in the directions... I could do with out this one.

received as described and on time

Exactly as expected

As the holiday season approaches, many enjoy searching out the perfect wreath for in and outside the home. Now comes a book that helps the reader create their own floral works of art. This book is great because it gives the reader a guide to the ease and time of each project. There are designer tips and how-to photographs in additon to the finished project. Clear definitions of the necessary tools, types of flowers, alternative ideas for changing and updating wreaths are included.It is no longer necessary to hang a wreath just at Christmas. With this book, year round wreaths are created and celebrated.This is a wonderful and thoughtful gift for both the seasoned and beginning crafter!

I thoroughly enjoyed "Making Classic Wreaths"! Mr. Smithdid such an excellent job of describing- in easy to followsteps-how to make each of the many awesome wreaths in his book.What I really loved is how the book inspires each of us touse our imaginations and be creative! The detailed instructions make it easy- even for beginners- to make very polished andprofessional looking projects!!! I have read alot of "how to"books, but I have never enjoyed one more than this one! BUY IT...YOU WILL LOVE,LOVE, LOVE IT !!!!!

This book is wonderful. It has beautiful, professional looking projects and gives the reader a thorough understanding of wreath making basics as well as the skill level and appoximate time required for each project. I am very happy with this book!!
