Daisy's Days With Food Allergies

Synopsis

Daisy's Days with Food Allergies follows eight-year-old Daisy as she encounters everyday challenges due to her food allergies. In addition to providing practical tips for children with food allergies, this book will help them feel understood and supported. The author, Virginia B. Heinsen, wrote this book as a fourteen-year-old student entering 10th grade as part of her Girl Scout Gold Award project. She has lived with multiple severe food allergies since birth.

Customer Reviews

Virginia is a young author sharing her gift of experience with the millions of others living with food allergies and the millions of children interacting with those with food allergies. Simple and realistic situations and resolutions will help kids navigate daily interactions where food allergies always arise. A great book for all elementary school kids!

This beautifully illustrated book delivers a thoughtful and important message for people with AND without food allergies. My son and I loved reading it together. Highly recommend!
