Customer Reviews

just what i needed to review for starting to play the flute after 50 years.

It's awesome, however, When I got it, that I basically paid over $16.00 for a piece of thin card stock paper, that had all sides written on, folded in half, and only had the front and back thinly laminated. I could have done that much through my computer's printer! It's nice, and very informative. But definitely not worth that price. If you need something like this, it's WAY cheaper to get a few pictures off google.com and then just print them out or stick them in a personal binder or folder.

This is a very easy to read chart made of a durable paper material. It will be very useful refreshing my memory. Hassle free transaction. Recommend product and seller.
