Customer Reviews

Jackie Thompson is a veteran soapmaker with over 18 years experience in the handcrafted soapmaking field. She along with daughter Gaily founded Gaily Rebecca Soaps. Their soaps have sold through craft shows, retail, wholesale and private label contracting. Jackie is a Certified Master Soapmaker member and honorary lifetime member of the Handcrafted Soap and Cosmetic Guild. She lives on the family ranch in Texas with her husband Stan and dog Boudroux.

Clear, concise, easy to understand and follow for a beginner.

Well written with appropriate information for the beginning liquid soap maker. Includes many recipes and pictures.

Taught me things I needed to know! Excellent reference.

This is a very informational book

This is an awesome book! It is very informative and gives great directions.

Great book.

I've just been in the mind of a soaping genius. Whether you are a beginner or advanced soapmaker Jackie Thompson's book has it all in easy to follow instructions. I highly recommend this book.

This book is very well written. It goes into the science of the process, but is not too simplified or over technical. It has good explanations about the difference between liquid and bar soaps.
