Customer Reviews

Lots of good information but the way the book is put together is confusing and makes it hard to find an attraction if you don't know where, in Chicago, it is. This is because the writer divides the book up by sections of Chicago (The Loop, Hyde Park, etc) with maps and indexes in each area. But, obviously, if you don't know which area an attraction is, it can be tough to find. (There is a general index but it was easy to confuse with the other regional indexes that the writer included.) Fun writing style; nice photos.

Lonely Planet makes a great book! Lonely Planet Chicago is filled with large variety of information for all ages and all interests.

Lots of good information

Up to date with just the right amount of information.

Really great book! I'm learning so much.
