Customer Reviews

Good reference text for US first day covers. The hobby has gone out of style, possibly because of the cost of good storage and the amount of space needed. However, if you do have a collection, it's a good resource. Do not pay close attention to the price list. With few exceptions, people are not interested in buying the covers. But if you love philatelic history, this is an excellent resource.

Nicely done book/catalog that includes helpful discussions and valuations on cachets and how to collect them. Includes values for se-tenant blocks AND se-tenant plate blocks, recognizing them as fundamentally different in value. Black and white is a little dull but otherwise well laid out, easy to find what you are looking for.
