Customer Reviews

I bought the cd's to supplement my bible reading and make good use of my commute time. It serves this purpose well, but I do have some negatives...1) the voices used for all people outside of Jesus (which is the same voice as the narrator) are just cheesy and comical. It makes me wince. 2) Occasionally music will play in the background that is absolutely random, and in no way consistent with what is happening (think jaws music during a happy embrace, or an upbeat tune in a death scene) very strange. The narrator also speed reads some important parts, or placed emphasis where it should not be. I think it is fine for someone familiar with the bible, but probably not for someone dabbling in bible study or the above might be offputting

We bought these for my father who is in an Alzheimer's unit and we put them in for him and he loves them. The voice is very mellow and relaxing to him.

This is the Bible on CD. It uses a very easy to understand Bible version - The New Living Translation. It includes background noises, such as birds, horses, water, etc. It sounds just like you are there while it was happening. Bible Alive!. You can listen to it at home, in your office, and even while traveling.

My husband loves this version and he was so excited to get it! The clips to listen to really helped him decide. He is in a delivery truck in the mountains and can't get service to do online. This was the perfect option. It shipped fast and was better than what was stated! Thank you !

Very good quality audio, good presentation and quality on the holder. Convenient to take on trips and makes a great gift also for those that aren't too into reading.

This is the best bible on CD I've ever lessened to. I would tell anyone to buy this at any time.

Some of the labels in Psalms don't match what's on the CD. I haven't listened to the whole Bible yet, but am making progress. Otherwise, I love the main voice and the interaction of other characters dramatization.

I wish it was easier to understand sometimes (language wise and more clear) but worshippers great because I hate reading but I want to read my bible. I did follow along in my NLT bible to make sure this was what I purchased and I like it.
