Gary J. Sikorski is a freelance photographer who has worked in the tourist-related industry on Martha's Vineyard for several decades. He has photographed virtually every country in Western Europe, and parts of South America, Mexico, the Caribbean, and Hawaii.

This is a beautiful book. The pictures are very nice and after going to the Vineyard for a decade there are still some things I need to cross off my checklist the Gary Sikorski pointed out. If you are planning a trip or a summer this is a great find. Also make a great conversation starter and coffee table book

My dad just moved to the Vineyard and LOVES this book I got him. He has already done almost half of the suggestions in it. Very sturdy and well made coffee table book.

I gave this to my son who has been to Martha's Vineyard several time. He really like it.

Beautiful book

I've visited Martha's Vineyard a few times and done the typical things. Picked this up and saw a lot more things off the beaten track that I can't wait to try. Pictures are great and the descriptions give you enough info to pique your interest.
