Customer Reviews

A good product for fans of the movie, but it could have been a lot better. Labyrinth succeeds not just because of its human leads (Bowie, Connelly, and young Froud) but because of the wondrous creatures that populate its world. Some of those characters are included here, yet many more are left out. In their place, we get multiple images of Bowie. I could live with two or three pictures of Jareth, but five (out of twelve) seemed excessive (sorry). Connelly, too, is featured perhaps too many times. Usually, her appearances as Sarah here are with other characters from the film, and this seems to reduce the spotlight on their contributions, especially as opposed to the other characters that receive portrait-style images. All in all, I think the calendar tries to do too much. Is it a tribute to Bowie, a memorial of the film, or a poster book? As it stands, it fails as all three. (A warning if you get this from . Mine arrived in a flimsy cardboard package and was bent along one corner. Do check the condition yours arrives in.)

very happy with my calendar
